June 2022 - April 2023

I wrote dialogue and worldbuilding for Snowman's latest game, Laya's Horizon. I also animated, and created in-game cinematics and trailer footage.

Creator, Evelynne Doom
2022

Evelynne Doom is a pilot I'm pitching about a young witch trying to battle toxic positivity with her bumbling sidekick, Bob, the Avatar of Doom. I have organized a team of artists to animate a short section of the script.

Creator, Rob and Zom
2020

Rob and Zom is an animated series about the philosophical musings of a robot and a zombie exploring a post-apocalyptic world. I led a team of six writers, two animators, and our composer.
